Goeloe, Mrs. Carnaval Flor Maria Croes-Bislik and Youth Tumba Queen Chantal Quant happy with the latest in communications technology from SETAR N.V. and completely ready for the last lap of Carnaval.

SETAR N.V. – Aruba's telecommunications company – the main sponsors of Carnaval 55 rewarded winners of this carnival season.

The telecommunications company is proud of the local talent and the impressive way they have presented themselves throughout the season and so make Aruba's biggest party even better.

The community of Aruba has been enjoying the Car-naval season for almost two months now and the people are getting ready for the last lap: this weekend with many activities starting on Thursday moving up to the climax of carnival on Sunday with the Grand Carnaval Parade.

The weekend kicks off with Jouvert Morning (Pajama party) followed by the San Nicolas Grand parade and to finish with the Grand Carnival parade.

SETAR N.V. as the main sponsor of Carnaval 55 has gone all out in promoting most of the main events which include the Calypso and Roadmarch festivals, children, youth, carnival queen and Mrs. carnival election, Tumba contests and many more.

Besides the tremendous support to Aruba's largest and most impressive party the telecommunications company has gone wild giving out the signautre red
